

Online Workshop

Responsible wolf ecotourism and junior citizen programmes for nature conservation

March 16th, 2023 from 9.00 to 13.00 CET

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://scientificnet.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJMvdOGqrjkoEtQz30IPtCDGa8VEEXzfkv6v>

With this workshop the LWA EU project wishes both to present its main ecotourism and educational activities, but most importantly to bring together experiences from LIFE and non LIFE initiatives, sharing best practices and pilot-experiences to establish contacts and long-lasting exchange of knowledge and know-how related to wolf responsible ecotourism & environmental education.

Partners

Speakers:

Irene Borgna (LIFE WolfAlps EU)

Ecotourism and Young Ranger programme within the LIFE WolfAlps EU

Irena Kavčič (LIFE WolfAlps EU)

Carnivore friendly scheme in Slovenia and guidelines for responsible wolf tourism

Francisco Álvares (CIBIO-InBIO/BIOPOLIS, Portugal)

Cultural dimension of wolves as a resource for ecotourism and educational activities

Clara Tattoni (LIFE ARCPROM project collaborator, Italy)

Towards ecolabelling: measuring the impact of Apennine brown bear in the media

Giovanna Di Domenico (LIFE ARCPROM, Italy)

The Bear Friendly label in the Maiella National Park: a tool to promote coexistence and preserve the ecosystem

LWA EU steward association La Ventura

Stewardship experience for ecotourism/Young Ranger activities in Southern Piedmont, Italy

Manca Velkavrh (LIFE WolfAlps EU) & Mojca Pintar (Triglav National Park)

Young Ranger and Junior Ranger programmes in Slovenia

Jessica Micklem-Kolenić (EUROPARC, Youth Officer)

Involvement of young generations, the experience of the EUROPARC network (Junior Ranger, Youth+ e Youth Manifesto)

Maud Gari (Le LABA, European YETI)

Developing and supporting young people's skills who want to work in the field of eco-tourism

Brad Free (Ranger at Great Smoky Mountains National Park)

Junior Ranger experiences from USA parks

Agnese Blasetti, professional cartoonist, will illustrate live the speeches of all the speakers during the workshop.

